FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

REYNOLDS NAMED EOM

CHARLESTON, IL--Linda Reynolds of Charleston, secretary in the Office of Affirmative Action and Cultural Diversity at Eastern Illinois University, was recently named the University's "Employee of the Month."

Reynolds, recognized for her exemplary performance on the job, was selected from more than 800 full-time civil service employees at Eastern.

"Linda Reynolds is highly committed to performing well in her job. She is willing to give 110 percent on any project, and it is a great pleasure to work with her," said Cynthia Nichols, acting director of Affirmative Action and Cultural Diversity.

REYNOLDS

An Eastern employee since 1989, Reynolds provides clerical assistance to Nichols, and oversees appointments, correspondence and the budget for the office.

Reynolds serves as chairperson for the Office Staff Support Group, an organization for clerical and secretarial employees at Eastern. She has assisted the organization in planning for the the University's annual "Bosses Day" luncheon and in scheduling speakers for the group's monthly meetings. She is also an avid bridge player and recently found an interest in quilting.

Reynolds and her husband live in rural Charleston and have two daughters: Natalie, age 27, and Pam, 25.
